

Event time line (Extended)

Year
Month
Date
Location
Event number
Comment
Related documents
Related Photo Nr.

This table can be used to note down time, duration and location of torture and/or imprisonment. During examination, especially in case of multiple instances of torture, the injury reported or observed can be linked to the respective event number in the body chart and in photo documentation.